Information about our use of cookies

The Mercuria website uses cookies. Cookies are used to distinguish you from other users of our website. These cookies allow us to improve our website and help us to ensure that you have a good experience when you browse our website.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree.

By continuing to browse the site, you are agreeing to our use of cookies.

Using Cookies enable us to:

- Know you when you return to our site
- Know how often and when you have visited our site
- Access traffic source information
- Determine the start and end of a session
- Know the value of visitor-level custom variables

Please note that third parties may also use cookies. Mercuria has no control over third party use of cookies.

Should you wish to block cookies you can do so by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all or parts of our site.
